

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the misuse of corporate power in our election process.

This may properly be a matter for the Federal Election Commission, but certainly the FCC must have some jurisdiction to address this misuse of corporate power and the public airwaves.

Whether Republican, Democrat or independent, all Americans should be distressed if Sinclair is allowed to take this action without intervention by the FCC.

Thank you.
